FEATURED DISHES

Cooking From The Heart

These are the heart of Indian cuisine. You can find various types, such as chicken curry, lamb curry, and vegetable curry, cooked with a variety of spices and served with rice or bread.

Biryani: A fragrant rice dish cooked with aromatic spices and typically featuring chicken, lamb, or vegetables. It's often garnished with fried onions and served with raita (yogurt dip).
Naan and Roti: These are different types of Indian bread. Naan is soft and typically brushed with ghee (clarified butter), while roti is thinner and unleavened.
